

June Haiku 2025

This Haiku should have been included in the May document and was credited to Christine Andersen in error for which I apologize.

grand gardens gleam with golden edging as sun falls, Earth's serene repose

Jessica Andersen

=====

In the city streets children play in the water from open hydrants

David Boston

=====

Re love: one must not,
as per my proctologist,
force the matter

Brad Davis

=====

The rolling rains and subtle grays gently prod spring's greens awake.

Matthew S. Mercure

=====

My house talks to me Creaks, groans, whimpers, in the night
Where does my ghost hide?

Larry E. Zimmerman

Hebron Poet Laureate

=====

years fly, wings weaken now walk, remember your dreams one more day well-lived

Karl Traichel

=====

Mortar boards air borne Laughter joyously resounds Challenges await

Mario R. Cavallo

=====

Thimbles, dusk, ferry.
Lights from a house party.
Outside, flashlights play.

NanO

=====

Orca tosses seal into air displays it's prize catches and repeats

Tony Fusco

=====

Visiting Old Town?
Take an old timey photo Near Celebration.

Shawn VB

=====

Drum beat marching feet Clashing cymbals blasting brass Rah rah sis boom bah

By Linda Glovna

=====

As Summer begins waves like slate blue metal tubes carry egg white foam

Cynthia Santostefano Sharr

=====

celebrate the mug with each new morn of living full as is the day

Jan Geoghegan

=====

rain kills clouds parched land breathes celebration.

Peter Ulisse

=====

With my husband dead candles that leap into flame now torch only pain

Vivian Shipley

=====

Wild plum tree in wind Waving goodbye to all those Pink blossoms of spring

James R. Scrimgeour

=====

celebration time coming let us celebrate celebration time is gone.

Gloria Jainchill

=====

Haiku - Celebration

Comfort of the nest
Sun breaking through cloudy skies Fledgling solo flight

Starr Ertel

=====

June 2025- Celebration

The alarm rings— Ah!
Summer mornings!—rolling over to snooze.

Kevin Carey

=====

"Which?"

taking a new job at age sixty; celebrate?
claim insanity?

by Donna Marie Merritt

=====

Petal confetti
Cherry blossoms raining down Celebrating sun

--Patricia Martin

=====

CHILDREN HAIKU

Celebrate children
Who try their best to succeed
Even though they fail.

Emory Jones

=====

Haiku for June: Celebrate soft wind, black caps we celebrate becoming with each goodbye

-Amy Levitin Graver

=====

summer solstice strawberries pinken the cream

Dana J. Graef

=====

Bear sedge, fescue, rye, chickweed, moss, mock strawberry, speedwell— my green lawn.

-Charlie Ewers

=====

Snow geese fan over fields of winter wheat. Gah, gah from every beak.

Stephen Corbeil

=====

Buds burst in color Fledgling mouths await their meal Spring leads to summer

Lynn Faria

=====

ordinary days should be recognized as true life celebrations

Patti Fusco

=====

the family tree bears boundless fruit, born and bred from hundred year root

Jessica Andersen

=====

Candy kids stampede, Swimming in hopeful sunshine.
Summer bell ringing.

-- Amy D'Orio

=====

each sunrise cause for celebration through sunset

Suzanne Niedzielska

=====

clocks set still at the last minute of their life

Doreen R Oshinskie

